Context

Anglès I

Anglès I is a compulsory subject within the area of Foreign Languages Applied to Tourism which, in turn, is one of the three components of the Instrumental Module.

As an instrumental subject, Anglès I (i.e. English for Tourism I), is an essential tool for communicating in international professional settings related to the tourism industry.

The learning of English for Tourism in the Degree of Tourism is organised in four levels of proficiency consisting of 3 compulsory subjects (Anglès I, Anglès II, Anglès III) and an elective one (Anglès IV).

Anglès I will deal with the language needed to provide customer service and tourist information at intermediate level in the following professional settings: hotels, tourist information centres, and airports.

Requirements

Syllabus

Recommended

Students must have achieved a B1 level of proficiency (as determined in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) in English as a Foreign Language in their post-obligatory secondary education.

Skills

Specific

- * CE-1 A command of the English language at an intermediate level so that students can develop all language skills and use the specific vocabulary needed to perform effectively in the tourism sector.
- * CE-8 Achieve a command of foreign languages and attain the information technology skills needed to interact in the tourism market, i.e. collecting and analysing data, carrying out statistics and qualitative data analysis, making on-line bookings and using computer applications.

Generic

- * CG-4 Can communicate information, ideas, problems and solutions in tourism-related settings to both specialist and non-specialist audiences.
- * CG-5 Have developed those learning skills that are necessary for them to continue to undertake further study with a high degree of autonomy.
- * CG-2 Apply the acquired technical and methodological knowledge to their work in a professional way by integrating the various areas of knowledge covered in their degree in Tourism. Prove that competences have been acquired by being able to engage in tourism-related discussions and develop problem-solving techniques.

Basic

- * You may consult the basic competencies students will have to achieve by the end of the degree at the following address: <http://www.uib.eu/study/grau/Basic-Competences-In-Bachelors-Degree-Studies/>
